When Lawrence Police Department officers responding for reports of shots fired arrived, they found a man with a gunshot wound to the head, who was transported to the hospital in critical condition, a police spokesperson said at the time.

Investigators received descriptions of three suspects in the shooting, the spokesperson said, but it wasn't clear if anyone is in custody. There's no word on what may have preceded the gunfire.

Anyone with information on the incident can contact Crime Stoppers of Central Indiana at 317-262-8477.
